SOME VIRTUES OF SALAWAAT/DURUUD

Hadrat Abdullaah ibn Mas‘uud narrates that Raslullaah Sallallaahu alayhi Wasallam said: “On the day of Qiyaamah, the closest to me from among the people will be those who have read the most amount of Salaat on me” ~ Tirmidhi

Ka‘ab Ahbaar Radiallaahu Anhu who was well-versed in the Toraah, says that Allaah sent revelation to Sayyiduna Musaa Alayhi Salaam saying, “If there were not on the face of the earth people who praise and glorify me, I would not send down a drop of water from the skies and no seed would grow from the earth.” and He mentioned other things besides this. Allaah then said, “O Musaa, if you wish to be closer to me than the proximity of your speech with your tongue, more close than your heart is to its thoughts, than your body is to your soul and than your eyes are to your vision.” Sayyidunaa Musaa quickly replied, “O Allaah, please do inform me.” Allaah said, “Confer blessings upon the Messenger of Alllah Muhammad sallallaahu alayhi wasallam abundantly.” (Al-Qawl al-Bad‘ii)

Rasulullaah Sallallaahu alayhi wasallam said: “Whosoever recites Duruud on me ten times in the morning and evening, I will intercede for him on the day of Qiyaamah.” ~ Tabraani

Hadhrat Abdullaah ibn Mas‘uud Radiyallaau Anhu said:
Rasulullaah sallallaahu alayhi wasallam said: “Allaah has angels who go around on earth conveying to me the salaam of my Ummah.” ~ Nasa‘ii

And dont leave Rasulullaah even one day, for what can be sweeter than salaat upon Mubammad! And ease in affairs is for him, who on the selected one sends salaat on Mubammad! A cure for the sick just as it is a medicine, is the salaat of the lovers upon Mubammad! Direct yourself, if you wish for relief from debts, to the treasure of salaat upon Mubammad!-Shaykh Salih al J‘afari R.A

BASHAA-IR AL KHAYRAAT

Glad Tidings of Good Things

Al Ghawth al Azam Abd al Qadir al Jilani

Rahmatullah Alayh

Introduction

'Allah' - beginning with the name of - the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful Bismillaahir-Rahmaanir-Rahiim.

Praise be to Allaah, who has graciously endowed us with faith. Blessing and peace be upon the master of the realms of being, and upon his family and his Companions, at every moment and at all times.

It is related of the Shaikh of the Community, the Imaam of the Imaams, the chieftain of the nobles, the Cardinal Pole of the Cardinal Poles [Qutb al-Aqtab], the Supreme Helper [al-Ghawth al'Azam] and the most generous protector, my master, Abd al-Qadir al-Jilaani, that he said to one of his brethren in Allaah (Exalted is He):

Accept these invocations of blessing [salawaat] from me, for I received them by way of inspiration [ilhaam] from Allah (Exalted is He), then I presented them to the Prophet Sallallaahu Alayhi Wasallam. I intended to ask him about their special merit, but he answered me before I asked him, and he said to me:

They have a special merit that is something too tremendous to be calculated. They raise those who adopt them to the highest degrees, and cause them to reach the farthest goals. If someone seeks to achieve some purpose by them, he will not be turned away disappointed. His idea will not be frustrated, and his supplication will not be rejected. If someone recites them, even one time only, or carries them with him, Allah will grant forgiveness to him and to those who are with him in his company.

When his final moment is at hand, four of the angels of mercy will be present beside him. The first will keep Satan away from him. The second will inspire him to utter the profession of faith [kalimaat ash-shahaada]. The third will quench his thirst with a cup from the River of Abundance [al-Kawthar]. The fourth will hold in his hand a vessel of gold, filled with the fruits of the Garden of Paradise, giving him the glad tidings of a dwelling in the Garden, and saying to him: Be of good cheer, O servant of Allaah! So he will look at Him and see Him with his eye, before his spirit departs.

He will enter his grave with a feeling of security, happy and cheerful, and he will experience no loneliness and no confinement therein. Forty doorways of mercy will be opened for him, and the like thereof of light. When he is raised up on the Day of Resurrection, an angel will bring him good news from his right, and an angel will reassure him from his left. He will be dressed in two fine garments, and a well-bred steed will be guided to him for him to ride. He will suffer no distress and no remorse, and he will be subjected to an easy reckoning. When he passes across the Bridge of Hell, the Fire will say to him: Make a quick escape, O emancipated slave of Allaah! I am forbidden to touch you.

He will enter the Garden of Paradise in the company of the righteous forebears, and in the Garden he will be given forty domes of white silver. Each dome will contain a palace of gold, and in each palace there will be one hundred pavilions made of light. In each pavilion there will be a raised couch made of silk brocade, and upon each raised couch there will be a maiden, one of the houries with those lovely eyes. Her body will consist of the most fragrant perfume, as if it were the full moon of the night of his consummation. Then he will be given that which no eye has ever seen, of which no ear has ever heard, and which has never occurred to the heart of a human being.

According to the traditional report [khabar], on the night when the Prophet Sallallaahu Alayhi Wasallam was transported to his Lord (Almighty and Glorious is He), the Almighty One (Glorious and Exalted is He) said:

To whom does the earth belong, O Muhammad? He replied: To You, O my Lord, so He said to him: To whom do the heavens belong, O Muhammad? Again he replied: To You, O my Lord, so He said to him: To whom do the veils belong? Again he replied: To You, O my Lord, so He said to him: To whom does the Pedestal [Kursi] belong, O Muhammad? Again he replied: To You, O my Lord, so He said to him: To whom do you belong, O Muhammad? At this point, the Prophet (Allah bless him and give him peace) bowed down in prostration, and the sense of shame prevented him from saying anything. The Almighty One (Glorious and Exalted is He) then said: You belong to him who invokes blessing upon you, and who does so with profound respect and reverence.

My master, Shaikh Abd al-Qadir al-Jilaani, then went on to say: This invocation of blessing is the one that befits this Prophetic tradition [hadith]. It is the opening of seventy doors of mercy, and it manifests marvels from the path of the Garden of Paradise. It is better than someone who emancipates a thousand souls, and immolates a thousand sacrificial beasts, and donates a thousand dinars [gold coins] to charitable causes, and fasts for a thousand months. It contains a hidden secret, and it is the means by which provisions are easy to obtain, characters are refined, needs are satisfied, degrees are exalted, sins are erased, faults are pardoned, and the lowly are dignified.

My master, the firm support of the religion, also said:

This invocation of blessing is given to no one but the perfect righteous man, for it is perfect in its qualities, endowed with gracious favor. If some problem troubles its owner, every invocation of it will be a means of access for him in the presence of the noble Prophet, and every Qur'aanic verse in it will be an intercession in the presence of the Almighty Patron. It is the invocation of blessing of those who perform the ritual prayer, the Qur'aanic recitation of rance, the admonition of those who heed those who practice remembrance, and the means of access of those who seek access. It is the invocation of blessing of the glorious Qur'aan, and I have called it:

O Allah, grant blessing and peace to our master Muhammad, the bringer of glad tidings and the conveyer, to those who seek forgiveness, of what Allah the Magnificent has said: Men who surrender [to Allah], and women who surrender, and men who believe and women who believe, and men who obey and women who obey, and men who speak the truth and women who speak the truth, and men who persevere and women who persevere, and men who are humble and women who are humble, and men who give alms and women who give alms, and men who fast and women who fast, and men who guard their modesty and women who guard their modesty, and men who remember Allah frequently and women who remember Allah has prepared for them forgiveness and a vast reward. (33:35)

And that man has only that for which he makes an effort, and that his effort will be seen. Then he will be repaid for it with fullest payment. (53:390-41)

The Salawaat of Gladness and Happiness to Dispel Sorrow and Sadness. A collection of Salawaat from *Dalaa-ilul Khayraat.

The Salawaat/Duruud mentioned in this short work are very effective in gladdening the heart and keeping a person in good spirits and in a happy mood. By its constant recitation, worry grief and depression will be dispelled. We have selected mostly short duroods that make the heart happy and can also be learnt and memorised easily.

Most of these salawaat are from the precious Salawaat book Dala'ilul Khayraat of Imaam al Jazuuli Rahimahullah which is the most widely read salwat work in the world. There is an immense overflowing of barakah that can be felt when reading this work so much so that the reciter can continue reciting for long periods and still wish to go on reciting. We hope these salawat give the reader a 'taste' of the actual work and encourages the reciter to recite the actual Dalaa'il on a daily basis.

Apart from the salawaat from the Dalaa-il, there are also a few salawaat at the end that are from 'Dhari-'atul Wusuul ila Janaabir Rasul' by Allamah Makhdoom Muhammad Sindhi, which was compiled by Hadhrat Shaykh Moulana Yusuf Ludhianvi. Rahmatullah Alayhim and one or two well known salawaat from other works. These salawaat are marked with a different symbol from the salawaat from the Dalaa-il.

We are grateful to Allah Ta'ala for having given us the good fortune of presenting to the readers a portion of this valuable work. May Allah and His Rasul sallallahu alayhi wasallam accept it. Amiin.

Dua

Praise be to Allah for His forbearance in spite of His Knowledge and His Clemency in spite of His Power. O Allah, I seek refuge in You from being needy to anyone besides You, and from all humility which is not for You and from all fear which is not fear of You, and I seek refuge in You from telling lies, or from being dishonest and immoral, or that I should be proud in front of You. And I seek refuge in You from gloating over my enemies, from disease, sickness and despair, from the waning of favor and from sudden catastrophes. O Allah, forgive me my sins and that of my parents and have mercy on them as they looked after me when i was little, and forgive all the believing and submitting men and women, those who are alive and those who have passed away.

O Allah, I beg You for forgiveness and well-being in my religion, in this life and in the Everlasting life. O Allah, cover my faults with a beautiful covering.

Alhamdulillahilahi 'ala hilmihii b'ada 'ilmihii. Wa 'ala 'afwihii ba'da qudratihii. Allaahumma inni a'udhu bika minal faqri illaa illayka. Wa minadh dhulli illaa laka, wa minal khawfi illaa minka. بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

All praises be to Allah, Lord of the worlds and peace and blessings upon the leader of all the prophets, the leader of the Allah fearing, the master of those whose faces will be shining on the day of Judgement, and peace upon all his descendents and companions.

Thereafter, the fervour and states of individuals arriving at the auspicious grave of the leader of both the worlds, pride of the universe, the best being to have walked upon the earth at anytime, mercy of both worlds Sallallahu alayhi wassalam, can be witnessed to be varying. Some, after presenting the renowned words of Salaat 'o' Salaam (peace and blessings) in respect and fear, remain silent, stunned. Silence is a sign of true love. How can speaking in the presence of the beloved be beneficial. Others, with difficulty try to control their trembling feet and string couplets full of deep love culminating into strings of tears rolling down their cheeks. :

Your glance, O Prophet! Your glance.
If not constantly at least occasionally.

The Salaat and Salaam narrated from the Sahabah radiallahu anhum are very few. Thus the choice of words adopted by the scholars following the Sahabah radiyallah anhum are mostly recited. These collections comprise of rhymes and rhythmical patterns which increase the desire and the yearning of the reader. It also becomes a means of fluent recitation and makes it easier for memorisation.

The Salaat and Salaam compiled in this small booklet are based upon the ninety-nine names of Allah known as Asma-e-Husna regarding which the Prophet Sallallahu alayhi wassalam says, "Allah has ninety nine names whosoever memorises them will enter paradise" {Sahi Bukhari}.

The blessed attributes and names of the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam which have been narrated by the scholars, mashaaikh and authors of seerah, have been presented alongside Asma-e-Husna in this booklet. More than sixty blessed attributes of the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam have been taken from Allam a Sakhawee's book Al-Qawlul Badee and the remainder from other Islamic texts. Whenever the blessed name of the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam could not be matched in rhyme with Allah's blessed names then an attribute was not formed by me but rather the rhythmical pattern was discontinued.

For some time I had been reciting these words of Salaat 'o' Salaam so when some of the pious acclaimed them and added words of encouragement I thought that if this collection of Salaat 'o' Salaam was to be published then it would be easier to present as gift to those interested. This was the cause of this book being published.

I would like to give a few words of advice regarding this booklet:

1. You will not only be rewarded for the recitation of Salaat 'o' Salaam but there is also a separate reward for the recitation of Asma-e-Husna.
2. Through the frequent recitation of this collection, Asma-e-Husna can be memorised regarding which encouragement has been narrated.
3. Frequent recitation of the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alyhi Wasallam's blessed attributes increases respect and love for the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam, which is an Islamic requirement.
4. There are some attributes of the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam, which are also found among the Asma-e-Husna. No polytheistic association with the attributes of Allah should be suspected because, where 'compassionate' (Raheem) and 'affectionate' (Rauf) are from Asma-e-Husna they have also been ascribed to the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam in the Holy Qur'an. Almighty Allah says, "...compassionate, affectionate to the believers". {9:128} On the contrary some attributes of Allah have even been used in conjunction with others besides Allah in both the Quran and Hadith. Allah says "verily, we have created man from Nutfah, drops of mixed semen (discharge of men and women), in order to try him, so We made him Samee (hearing), Baseer (seeing).” {76:2} In this verse, every human being is referred to as ‘Samee’ and ‘Baseer’ although these are from among the seven core attributes of Allah. It should be remembered that when these attributes are ascribed to Allah the belief should be that these are Allah's natural attributes, and when these attributes are used to characterise the creation then it is necessary to believe that these attributes are not innate but are given By Allah. Furthermore, the blessed attributes mentioned here are solely supplications for the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam, which negates the association of attributes with Allah.

May Almighty Allah, grace the compiler, the publisher and the readers with favours and blessings of Salaat ‘o’ Salaam and may He make it the means of increase nearness and love for the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam. There is no specific time for the recitation of the collection, it may be recited before or after Fajar or Maghrib Salah, before the recitation of the Quran or before supplication for any need. May Allah's blessings be upon our Master Muhamad Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam, his descendants and his companions.
